

AGENDA & PROGRAMME

International Conference

UrbanSCOPE - Urban Sustainable Mobility in focus: student education, community, involvement and participative planning

Organised by the Széchenyi István University in Győr, 15th September 2022

08:30 – 9:00 Registration („Menedzsment Campus 001” Hall, at Széchenyi István University, Győr, Egyetem tér 1, 9026 Hungary)

9:00 – 9:30 Welcome and opening speeches

Csicsmann László: Welcoming speech

Associate professor, Dean, Széchenyi István University, Kautz Gyula Faculty of Economics

Laczkovits-Takács Tímea: Welcoming speech

Member of the Municipal Council, City of Győr

Szörényiné Kukorelli Irén: Introduction of the UrbanSCOPE Project

Professor emerita, Széchenyi István University, project leader

9:30 – 11:30 Panel 1: Theory and concept of SUMP

(Chair: Honvári Patrícia)

9:30-9:50 Winkler Ágoston: Promoting sustainable urban mobility in Győr through the events of the European Mobility Week.
Associate professor, Széchenyi István University, Department of Transport

9:50-10:10 Barabás Réka, Pupp Zsuzsanna, Filep Bálint: The role of R&D in the planning of sustainable urban mobility through the example of Széchenyi István University
Széchenyi István University, Győr

10:10-10:30 Hajdu-Smahó Melinda: Autonomous vehicles in future cities
Assistant professor, Széchenyi István University, Research fellow, Centre for Economic and Regional Studies

10:30-10:50 Bartucz Csilla, Süle Edit, Horváth Adrián: By collaborating to overcome urban logistics issues – comparative introduction of 3 case studies
Széchenyi István University, Győr

10:50-11:30 Panel Discussion with the Presenters

11:30-12:00 Coffee Break

12:00 – 13:30 Panel 2: Experiences and core results of UrbanSCOPE

(Chair: Szörényiné Kukorelli Irén)

12:00-12:20 Honvári Patrícia: Exploring the residents' and key stakeholders' behaviours and opinions on SUMP
College associate professor, Budapest Business School, Department of Business Economics (Hungary)

12:20-12:40 Fouli Papageorgiou: The involvement of local society in SUMP. The experience of UrbanSCOPE
Managing director, PRISMA Centre for Development Studies (Greece)

12:40-13:00 Gladys Vasquez Fauggier: Sustainable Urban Mobility Planning (SUMP) in an Interdisciplinary Learning Environment: A Pilot Test in Darmstadt, Germany
Researcher, Technical University of Darmstadt, Faculty of Architecture, Urban Health Games Research Group (Germany)

13:00-13:30 Discussion, Questions & Answers

13:30-14:30 Lunch Break

14:30 – 16:00 Panel 3: Digital tools and the UrbanSCOPE Competition

(Chair: Honvári Patrícia)

14:30-14:50 Remco C. Veltkamp: Digital games and the UrbanSCOPE tool
Professor, Game and Media Technology, Utrecht University (The Netherlands)

14:50-15:10 Demetris Mylonas: Organising a SUMP Competition for University and secondary education students
PRISMA Centre for Development Studies (Greece)

- 15:10-15:30 Presentation of the winning competition entry of Greece (Glyfada)
Kallia Theocharidi, Celia Moraiti, Marianna Kokla, Eliana Giouzeli, Filippos Kourouvanis, Michael Angelos Daskalakis: Moving freely in my city
2nd Gymnasium of Glyfada (Greece)
- 15:30-15:45 Video presentation of the winning competition entry of Germany (Darmstadt)
Lanqing Gu: High quality walking environments for Martinsviertel, Darmstadt, Germany.
Technical University of Darmstadt (Germany)
- 15:45-16:00 Presentation of the winning competition entry of Hungary (Győr)
Bege András: Mobility road planning with supporting sustainability in Hungary
Széchenyi István University (Hungary)

16:00 – 17:00 Workshop: Experiences of the day – theory & practice of SUMP
(Chair: Honvári Patrícia and Sós Eszter)

Short overview and discussion with all of the participants, conclusion of the day, and outlook into the future.

17:00 Closing the conference/ open end & networking